

Weekly Roundup 15 to 21 Jun 2020

- 38% startups run out of funds as bailout calls go unanswered.
- Revival sign: Hiring up in some sectors.
- Slow start for India's ambitious plan to resuscitate small businesses.
- In corporate reckoning on race, a skin-deep industry stands out.
- Fast-fashion brands are prepping up for a post-pandemic world. An agile supply chain can help.
- 18% GST not levied on plain rotis, only on frozen parotas: Govt.
- Malls eye omni-channel presence with online push.
- Film buffs eager to go to cinemas says survey; multiplexes gear up to resume ops.
- Government looking at suggestions of gems, jewellery sector to boost manufacturing, exports.
- From disinfecting clothes to contactless shopping, apparel shops follow safety measures post lockdown.
- Welspun looks at re-purposing biz to align with changed ecosystem; e-commerce emerges priority areas.
- Robot food startups have a new pitch: No humans touch your lunch.
- Consumers may spend less, seek value for money, says report ETRetail.
- Five trends that are likely to play out for the FMCG sector due to Covid ETRetail.
- Anti-covid products flying off GeM shelves ETRetail.
- At FMCG companies, production crosses pre-Covid for food & hygiene goods .
- Covid-19 pandemic radically changing consumer behaviour in India: EY survey .
- Covid blues: Employees losing sleep over rejoining office